The awards selection process at the Starbird-Devlin Rod & Customs Charities Car Show event is designed to honor and highlight a wide variety of cars and trucks. The Starbird-Devlin Rod & Customs Charities Car Show event is about the passion people have for their cars. In our opinion every car owner deserves an award for all the hard work that has gone into its creation. Remember, it's not all about getting an award. Enjoy the event and make some new friends who have the same enthusiasm you do for our hobby and lifestyle. If you get a favorite award it's icing on the cake of a great weekend!

Favorite & Specialty Awards: These awards are "FAVORITES" or "picks" done by a variety of Starbird-Devlin Rod & Customs Charities Car Show staff members, industry executives, media representatives, sponsors and other dignitaries. The favorite selection committee searches throughout the entire event for their favorite cars and trucks. No point-sheets or "judging" is done to determine who gets an award. It's a very informal process where the persons picking the award feels strongly about a car and picks a favorite. It's that simple.

"Magnificent SEVEN" (The top specialty awards for first-time shown in Wichita vehicles. Entry deadline Dec. 21, 2012)
From those chosen to compete in the "Magnificent SEVEN", SEVEN Finalists will be selected.
